

K-love effects the local community and how I believe that it is a service to the community. I especially enjoy it's inspirational messages in music and speakers. There are so few stations like this in our area, please allow the music to continue. Thanks